

171

Shot description: - Gawain and Rowan

EXWS: Gawain and Rowan by a campfire. Locked off.

Dusk. Huge mountain landscape. We can see the hut and smoke rising from the distance. Two figures are sat either side of the campfire fire.

Adult Rowan V/O line.

'He always told me fireside stories.'

172

Shot description: Gawain and Rowan

WS: Gawain and Rowan. Locked off.

They are talking to each other by the campfire. The hut is in the background and the campfire between them.

Adult Rowan V/O line.

'Taliesin, Gwydion and Math son of Mathonwy. But that night, he spoke only of the Antlered Man....'

173

Shot description: - Rowan

CS: head shot angled slightly downwards. Steady hand held.

Rowan is listening to Gawain telling one of his stories.

Adult Rowan V/O line.

'Tale after tale, Gwynn, Herne, Arawn. The God of the wild hunt.'

174

Shot description: - Gawain

MS: Gawain. Rowan's POV.

Gawain looking at the camera as if talking to Rowan.

Gawain's line.

'Thief! The stranger cried! This is my land!'

175

Shot description: - Gawain

MS: Gawain. Rowan's POV.

Same shot Gawain gets up while his telling the story. Camera follows his movements with a simple pan upwards. Maintaining the low angle.

Gawain's line.

'And everything that runs here belongs to me! The white stag is not yours to hunt!'

176

Shot description: - Gawain

MS: Gawain. Rowan's POV.

Same shot Gawain gestures while he tells the story.

Gawain's line.

'And Pwyll was ashamed and offered to pay for the animal he'd killed.'